INTRODUCTION

---

I have compiled this book at my leisure and believe that it will be found to be reasonably complete. In doing my work I have freely used that of Gen. Marcus J. Wright, C. S. A., who has done considerable work in the Confederate records, in charge of the government at Washington; and, also, that of Col. I. W. Avery, C. S. A., who has compiled and published A History of Georgia.

The compilation embraces (1) Field Officers, which are Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, and Majors, arranged alphabetically; (2) Regiments and Battalions, arranged by States alphabetically, showing the composition and structure of each.

The book is intended to aid those who may at some time need the historical information it contains.

Respectfully,

CLAUD ESTES.

Macon, Ga., January 1, 1912.
